

Our Education Committee is working hard every day to teach Hawaii women about early detection and screening. We are looking for people from all parts of the state to help us spread the word. Activities in this committee include public speaking, working an education table at events or simply dropping off education materials at your local hospital. If you are interested in this committee please call 808-754-6659 or email komenhawaii@hotmail.com.